Ambulance staff get parity

Although the bid by Haliburton and District Ambulance personnel is so far unsuccessful, the workers will be getting a pay raise that will bring them up to par with their counterparts in Minden.

Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships council passed a resolution last Thursday that brings the rate for full-time attendants up to $11.45 per hour. Part-time workers will be paid $10.34 per hour.

The Township has held the licence for management of the Haliburton service since Dysart et al gave it up in October. Although Anson, Hindon and Minden also holds the licence for the Minden service, there was a difference in the rate of pay for each. The increase, which is retroactive to January 1, equalizes the pay scale for the two services.

Responding to reports of low morale in the Haliburton service, council members said they are working to iron out the difficulties, which they say were caused by the initial transition.

Reeve Sinc Nesbitt said that by accepting the Haliburton licence, council did what it thought was best for the people in Haliburton and the county.

The township is acting as an interim manager until the Ministry of Health puts the licence up for tenders. Council may or may not seek to win the contract.

Derby is best of times, worst of times

With an estimated 8,000 people jammed into Minden's downtown business area for the two days of the sled dog derby, many business owners are saying this was their most successful weekend of the entire year.

However, there are others, whose businesses were actually hurt by the event and the closing of Main Street, who want the derby moved off the main street next year.

The fourth running of the Martin Minden Sled Dog Derby was by far the most successful to date in terms of drawing spectators. People were lined up four and five rows deep for about 200 yards along the route from the starting line on January 9 and 10. Beyond that point, people were standing shoulder to shoulder all the way up to the fair grounds.

However, while many businesses thrived on the attention Minden received during the weekend, at least two feel the downtown event prevented their regular customers from shopping in their stores.

Coneybeare's Butcher Shop is one such business. In a letter to The Times and to the township council, Al Coneybeare says the closing of Main Street on the Friday and Saturday takes away the two busiest days of the week for his business. He suggested that the starting line should be moved up to the arena next year. (The full letter is printed on page five).

In an effort to find out how other businesses fared on the weekend, The Times contacted a number of owners for their comments. And of the 10 contacted, only one really wanted the event moved off the main street. Two said they lost business on the weekend and most felt that the street should not be closed until the Saturday of the race.

Although the races did not start until Saturday, Main Street was blocked off Friday morning as roads crews placed snow and built berms on that section of the course.

Friday closing was just too much

"Like I said in my letter, I'm not against the dog sled race," said Coneybeare, who supports many community events. "But I really feel that the closing on the Friday just wrecked what would have been a good weekend for us."

Coneybeare said he received three phone calls from customers who said they would be shopping elsewhere that weekend. "They said they drove Little remains of the wood frame building which housed the Haliburton Machine Shop and Manufacturing following a fire early Thursday morning. The charred ruins of equipment, stock and a truck belonging to Gull River Build-All, offered mute evidence to the ferocity of the blaze. The fire was reported at approximately 5:30 a.m. In addition to the flames, the firemen had to deal with record cold temperatures while bringing the blaze under control. Owner of the company, Murray Burton, said efforts are now underway to get the business operating again. Four individuals were employed at the machine shop. The cause of the fire and the amount of the loss has yet to be determined.

Road being improved gradually Blairhampton residents told Blairhampton Road residents can look forward to gradual road improvements, but Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships council was not willing to make any commitment to a time line for major improvements.

A group of residents from that area attended last Thursday's council meeting to express dissatisfaction with the condition of the road and ask for it to be upgraded. However, they were told that the municipality can not afford to make all the repairs at once.

"We have a problem," Reeve Sinc Nesbitt agreed. "And little by little, we're solving the problem. We can't afford to do everything at once."

The Reeve said some work was done last year, and more will likely be done this year. "We're getting on top of it ... maybe not as fast as you or we would like, but we're getting there."

Council was told that at one point last spring there was three to four inches of mud on a section of the road. In other areas the culverts were washed away, and the road is often in need of grading in the summer.

Roads Superintendent Clayton Cameron said some culverts are heaved up in the spring by the frost because they are laying on a clay base. he said they are gradually being replaced and proper gravel bases are being laid.

Regarding the "washboards" on the road, Nesbitt said that grading would solve this, but it would also remove the layer of oil. However, he noted that there will likely not be any road oiling done next summer because companies are refusing to supply oil until ministry guidelines are established, regarding allowable levels of contaminants.

The problem experienced last year with the mud could not be avoided, Cameron told the group. It was so dry last summer that grading could not be done. When rain did come, they began grading the road, but Cameron said too much rain fell, creating the mud problem.

The group's spokes-

Two make lasting impression

The Times is pleased to introduce a new bi-weekly column written by Rev. Ed Moll.

Reverend Moll is the pastor at the Minden United Church. A native of London, Ont., he came to Minden just over a year ago after serving as minister at the United Church in Denbeigh, Ont. He is a graduate of the University of Western, Ont., Laval University in Quebec City and obtained his divinity degree at Emmanuel College at the University of Toronto.

Ed Moll, when asked to describe what readers might expect in his column, said he would like to use it to share his thoughts on topical issues of the day reflecting on the community and his experience as a minister.

by Rev. Edward Moll

A few times in your life there are people who through the most ordinary of actions make the deepest impression. When I think back, two names come to mind: Bernice and Sinclair Bryan.

I couldn't have been more than seven years old at the time. My brother was three years my junior. We were living in Brockville, in a rented cottage. Just up the road lived the Bryans, and for one reason or another they took an interest in us. They were in their sixties at the time, and childless, and they took us into their household as if we were their own grandchildren.

Every Sunday my mother would dress up, and we would walk up, and we would walk up, my brother and I, to the Bryan's house. From there we would go to St. John's United Church in Brockville, and come back for lunch. Sometimes during the week we would visit, and always we were welcomed with open arms, amid smells of lavender and cookies in the oven.

They didn't know it at the time, but they gave us the first conscious experience of what church was:

wooden pews, older people sitting, blue books with strange words in them, older people standing sometimes, and one older man, kind, gentle, who stood at the front and talked a lot. I don't remember anything of what he said, although Sinclair and Bernice remembered what I did sometimes while he talked, and so kept a generous supply of picture books and colouring books and crayons handy.

We were only in Brockville for a year and a half, and then the family had to move to Kitchener where my father had another job. The last Sunday at St.

John's for us was memorable. The minister called my brother and I to the front of the church and presented us each with a small blue New Testament. I felt good, and although I was not able to say at the time, honoured. This was a place that welcomed my brother and I, where I could feel at home. And I felt sad that we were leaving.

I did not see Bernice and Sinclair for another twenty-five years. They are well into their eighties now, but their minds and hearts are as kind and perceptive as when they were a very young sixty. When we first got in touch with each other after that long silence, Bernice wrote me a letter. In it she said she still had a picture of my brother and I hanging over her bed. After all that time we were still in their home, though they had since moved to Gananoque, and I had moved all over the world.

As I think about them, I remember the extraordinary simplicity of their action in love: their warmth, kindness, and welcoming hospitality to two neighbourhood kids who had family problems of their own. And had it not been for Bernice and Sinclair, I think it would have been much more difficult for me to accept the welcoming love of the One they loved best.

Farmers fear rights activists

The Ontario Cattlemen's Association is trying to protect farmers from the animal rights sentiments being espoused by the Toronto Humane Society. Clare Bagshaw told members of the Haliburton County Farmers' Association at its annual meeting Tuesday.

The OCA is concerned about the animal rights movement and its view on treatment of farm animals, said Bagshaw. He said he was involved in a panel discussion on the topic which was aired recently on Country Canada.

"We're trying to do something," he told about 25 members of the association during the meeting at the Anson, Hindon and Minden Council Chambers. "We can't take this lightly. They're (the animal rights activists) going to do some damage for sure."

Victoria - Haliburton MP Bill Scott, who was the guest speaker at the meeting agreed with Bagshaw. He said there has to be some consideration for animal rights, citing one example of abuse that he witnessed. However, it should not be taken to the extreme being proposed by the activists.

There has to be some protection, said Scott. However, the Humane Society can take care of that. The Ontario Humane society does not share the same sentiments on the matter as the Toronto Humane Society.

Farmers' group picks executive

The 12th annual meeting of the Haliburton County Farmers' Association was held in the Anson, Hindon and Minden Council Chambers last Tuesday night.

Some of the topics discussed were membership fees and representation on the Ontario Cattlemen's Association, free trade, and the animal rights movement.

An election of officers was held and the new executive is as follows: Jim McMahon, president; Wally Bunn, vice-president; Godfrey Taylor, past president; Marg Nesbitt, secretary-treasurer; Paul Aggett, horses; Casey Cox, cattle; Ann Lee, small animals; Dwayne Wruth, soils and crops; Bill Moore, vegetables; Rhonda Frances, fair board; Joe Warder, 4H and Charlie Tyler, forestry.

Owner allays fears

There should be no concern of environmental damage from a marina on Mirror Lake near Carnarvon, Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council was told at its meeting last Thursday.

Marina owner Neil Griffin attended the meeting to respond to a petition from Mirror Lake residents who had asked that motorized boats be banned on the tiny lake. He assured council that he has no intention of driving any boats on the lake. However, he does hope to occasionally back a boat on its trailer into the lake to test the motor.

Griffin said he has already built a test tank in the shop and that is where 90 per cent of his testing will be done. However, at times it will be necessary to rev the engine, and that would be too noisy to do inside.

Griffin said he shares the other residents' concern for clear water, but feels that by occasionally testing a motor in the lake he will not cause pollution. He said the newer boat motors run very clean. He said he spoke with employees of the Ministry of Natural Resources and was told that one beaver will pollute the lake more than his marina will.

Council seemed satisfied with Griffin's assurances.

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the International Sled Dog Racing Association, I thank the merchants, their staff and the residents of Minden for making the drivers and their handlers welcome.

These drivers travel all across North America to races. Two out-of-province drivers told me they have never attended at a race and been treated as well as they were in Minden. Another driver said, "Great race, great town, great people."

Thank you Minden. Great people, great town, great race.

Derby weekend best of year

into town, they took one look and said the heck with it. So that's not only hurting myself," he said.

Bonnie Pentney of Little Rascals Boutique said business was "just terrible" for her on the weekend. She said the store saw only five customers on Friday, and 10 people asked to use the washrooms on Saturday. She closed up shop at 2 p.m. on the Saturday.

Unlike Coneybeare, who said he would be satisfied if the street could remain open on the Friday of the event, Pentney said she wants it moved off the main street. Despite the tremendous number of people in the downtown area, she said the derby does not help her business because people could not park on the street.

On the other side of the coin are the businesses that really prospered on the weekend and insist that the start and finish of the race should be kept downtown.

Business was very good at Beckers Variety. "We sold mountains of coffee and hot chocolate," said Carl Hamilton.

It was a shame that the street had to be closed down on the Friday, but he said even that did not bother his sales much. He said he might have lost $150 in sales on Friday but that was far outweighed by the extra business he picked up on Saturday and Sunday.

A few doors up at Highlands Jewellery and China Shoppe, business was just as good. "We did excellent with it," said Jerry Jordan. With the starting line right in front of the store and thousands of people on the street business was booming. "I did Saturday's business on Sunday, and I did almost double on Saturday." He said he had a collection of sled dog Eskimo carvings in stock and they were all sold out by the end of Saturday.

slow, but Saturday was a very good day.

Asked what she thought of moving the event out of the downtown area, Marie Cox said, "I would hate to see that. I think a lot of people would never even see the downtown if it wasn't held downtown."

Shirley Walker of the Minden Stedmans was also against moving the popular derby out of town. Aside from a lapse in business on the Friday, she said the derby weekend was one of the best for the store for the entire year.

Walker compared her weekend's sales with Restaurant as well as Rockcliffe Snack Bar was tremendous. "People were standing outside waiting to get in," said Anne Pitt at the K & A. "It's never that busy, even in the summer." She felt that business would be lost if the event was moved off the main street.

As might be expected, the Dominion Hotel and Rockcliffe Tavern had banner weekend. "Awesome, that's the word. Our weekend was awesome," said Dave Willis of the Rockcliffe.

Both Willis and Don MacKinnon of the Dominion, want the event staged downtown. Willis said a move from the Main Street would have a "drastic effect on business."

"I definitely don't want it moved out of the downtown area," MacKinnon agreed. He compared the weekend's business as equal to what he would expect on a long weekend in the summer.

'we're pleased with the whole set up'

"We did very well. We're pleased with the whole set up," said Jordan. "The only qualm I had about it was Friday. It hurt my Friday business." However, the increased sales on Saturday and Sunday more than made up for Friday's slow business.

Business at the Sears catalogue store was slow, but Carla Stewart said it had nothing to do with the derby or the closing of the street. "I think it's just the season," she said. The derby did not affect her business either way.

Over at Cox's Apparel the Friday business was those of the weekend of the Haliburton County Fair and said they were about at par. "That's the time of the year people are all supposed to be up in cottage country and comparing it to this past weekend they were the same. If anything, this weekend was a little better," she said.

"I hope that they stay downtown with the start and the finish," said Walker. She said some businesses might not see immediate benefits, "but some time or other the people are going to come back."

Business at the K & A

Many of the volunteers who assisted with the Minden Sled Dog Derby were treated to a post race party Sunday evening. Part of the fun included an old fashioned musical hoedown. Among the musicians providing the entertainment for the evening were, from the left, Bart Hilhorst of Minden, harmonica player Don Martin of Martin Feed Mills in Elmira and Michael Shirley of Minden.

Awesome

Dave Willis said it best: "Awesome...our weekend was awesome."

Anyone who was in Minden for their first time to see last weekend's dog sled derby had to be astounded that a community this size can put on such a tremendous event. It is estimated that there were 8,000 people who came to town for the derby and the one thing that was obvious was that everyone was having a great time.

It takes a tremendous amount of co-operation from the entire community to pull this event together. Co-operation that obviously was in place last weekend.

Everyone involved in the derby deserves a round of applause. The municipality for its support, the many volunteers who stood out in the cold all day to keep things running smoothly, the roads crew for preparing the main street, the service clubs, the Ham Radio club...and everyone else involved all deserve a pat on the back.

Over the past week, there have been a few complaints, but you can always count on that. You cannot please all of the people all of the time.

Now we have a few days to warm up before the Kinsmen Winter Carnival returns to Minden. Let's get out and give it our support and enjoy ourselves at the same time.

Montano madness

by Arthur Black

"The best things and the best people rise out of their separateness; I'm against a homogenized society because I want the cream to rise." Robert Frost.

Well, as Mister Frost is no longer with us, I can't be certain, but I have a hunch that the old New England poetaster would have been pleased as punch to meet Linda Montano. Linda's about as "separate" as a human being gets. Whether she's cream or curds I wouldn't like to say.

But what she ain't, is homogenized.

Linda Montano, aged 36, is an American performance artist. Big deal, you say. So's Barbara Mandrell, Pee Wee Herman and the Flying Zambonelli Sisters.

Well, true ... but Linda's shtick is a little bit different. Let me give you a brief read-through of Linda's performance profile so you can see what I mean:

Linda first took the avant garde art scene by surprise away back in 1971, when she made her debut in a piece entitled Lying: Dead Chicken, Live Angel. It was a fairly unforgettable debut. It featured Linda stretched out prone and motionless on a stage for three hours, clad only in several yards of white gauze and accompanied by 12 papier-mache chickens.

And just for authenticity, two live ones.

What did it - you know - mean? Well, a meal ticket for Linda Montano, for one thing. Gullible New York Trendoids lined up in threes for the chance to pay ten bucks to watch Linda Montano not doing anything in the middle of a flock of chickens, real and ersatz.

But like all great questing virtuosi, Linda was not content to recline in the cusp of superstardom on the strength of a single triumph. Her next aesthetic assault was a collaborative effort. She teamed up with a male colleague and created Art/Life One Year Performance.

This was a beaut. For Art/Life etc., Linda took an eight foot length of rope, tied one end of it in a great fat granny knot around her left wrist, then tied the other end around her colleague's left wrist. Each knot was sealed in a way that would show if there was any tampering. Then Linda and her pal went about their business, living their lives, tethered to one another night and day, rain and shine in sickness and health ...

For one full year.

I talked to Linda on the telephone when she was about half way through her Art/Life One Year Performance number. She sounded ... a little spacey ... a tad odd ... but not nearly as berserk as, well for instance, I would sound, if I had spent the best part of a year shackled to another human being. Think about it. Can you imagine never being more than eight feet away from someone - even your nearest dearest loved one - for three hundred and six-five straight days?

But Linda made it - and without a homicide, committed or suffered. I never did find out what happened to her colleague, but my Gotham spies tell me Linda Montano is still making artistic waves in the Big Apple. Her latest project is entitled Seven Years of Living Art. Linda works on this baby ten hours a day.

Sort of 'works at it', that is. Linda starts each morning by putting in three hours sitting in a room which is painted all in one colour. Following that she moves to another room where she spends seven hours listening to an oscillator which hums a single, unvarying note. Once a month she breaks up this routine by sitting in a window at New York's New Museum of Contemporary Art, where she chats with anyone who wants to chat with her.

Mind you, if it's not someone from her immediate family, Linda puts on a fake accent.

Meaningful, huh?

But what the heck? In a world that laughs at Jerry Lewis movies, lines up for Barry Manilow concerts and pays Michael Jackson a million dollars a minute to dance the praises of red and white cans of sugared soda water - why not a little Montano madness?

It's too early in the New Year to be cynical. So Linda Montano, good night and good luck to you ... Whatever you are.

Two best days were lost

To the Editor of the Minden Times and the Council of Anson, Hindon and Minden:

I would like to make it very clear that I am a strong supporter of a lot of our community's events, and especially of the annual Sled Dog Derby.

But I'm also a business man and a part of a main street that was literally destroyed business-wide on the derby weekend. Our street was closed starting at approximately 7:30 a.m. Friday, January 8th through January 10th. This takes away our two busiest days of the week. Taking Saturday away from us, we have lived with for the past few years, but to take the Friday as well is ridiculous!

The council, nor the B.I.A. had the courtesy to inform any of us on the Main Street of the plans to block the street off on the Friday of the weekend. Was council saying to H--- with their main street store operators? Was council trying to save a little overtime money?

Perhaps council will take a few dollars off our taxes because of loss of business. Upon talking to a lot of store owners and workers, there was a large loss of business on the weekend.

We agree that we should keep and support the Derby but it could be run from our Arena area, where there is excellent parking area and facilities for warmth, washrooms and a concession. I also ask an answer through this media from council or the B.I.A. for the reason of the Friday street closing!

Alan (Cub) Coneybeare, Minden, Ont.

Derby deserves much praise

Editor:

Just a brief note to commend all who were involved in last weekend's "Catch the Drift" Sled Dog Derby.

In 25 years as a Minden resident, I have never seen as much T.V. exposure for our village. Nor as many people in the downtown core.

This event should be encouraged and applauded by all ratepayers if we want to encourage tourism in our community.

Wishing the Minden Sled Dog Derby my sincere best wishes for continued growth in the years to come.

S. Dean Elliott, Minden.

Say no

Editor:

We would like to add our support to the thoughts of Mr. Deeprose re-bilingualism that he expressed in the Nov. 2 edition.

After reading the rather flowery response by M. Susan Wilson, in the Dec. 14 issue, we felt further comment was necessary and wonder if M. Susan Wilson is either a professional French language translator, or a French language teacher who may be "scared of losing her job perhaps", and whose strong suit is not necessarily languages either.

May we suggest that M. Susan Wilson return to the real world and divert her efforts to improved health and care for our senior citizens, child abuse, better education, etc.

As to future premiers and govt. leaders being bilingual, we find it difficult now to understand our premier and government leaders in English, without further confusing the issues by having them delivered in French.

In closing may we say Mr. Deeprose's letter did not "whip up a back lash" against the prospect of official bilingualism, but merely reflect the feeling of many, many, many thousands of English speaking Ontario residents.

May we also suggest M. Susan Wilson relocate in the Province of Quebec and redirect her efforts to furthering bilingualism there.

F.R. Le Maitre, Lutterworth Estates, R.R. 1, Minden, Ont.

Equal treatment

The following is an open letter to Doug Gazley, Field Service Manager for Canada Post:

Dear Mr. Gazley:

I am writing to express a concern I have regarding the discrepancy in service fees charged for postal boxes. My Post Mistress has explained the situation to me and I am not satisfied with the explanation. Presently I pay $25.44 for my post office box in Minden. Because I live out of town I am treated differently than the residents of Minden. She explained to me that I pay approximately four times as much as the residents of the village of Minden because I have the choice of rural delivery. Having one's mail left in an unlocked box along the side of the road is not comparable to having it delivered to a locked box in the post office. My fellow taxpayers of Minden do not have to pay the extra amount for this choice. Nor do they have to pay extra municipal taxes to contribute to this advantage. Why should I be treated differently? I do not believe Canada Post has the legal right to discriminate on the basis of where I choose to live. If I am willing to pick up my mail in town then I should be treated the same as any other citizen willing to do likewise.

There is no shortage of available boxes at the Minden Post Office. It would seem to me that if I and many others in the same situation chose to select general delivery, the efficiency of general delivery sorting and pick-up would be adversely affected.

It is my understanding that this matter is also beyond your control. Please provide me with the name, administrative position, and address of the person who is charged with making and reviewing these rules. I trust that Canada Post is always striving to improve the services provided the citizens of Canada and will take an interest in my concern.

Bernie Davis, Minden, Ont.

There are more than 2 Ingoldsby residents

The following is a letter to Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council:

Reeve Sinc Nesbitt, Anson, Hindon and Minden

Dear Reeve Nesbitt:

Re: "Ingoldsby beach still a 'rocky' issue" - (The Haliburton County Echo, Wed., Dec. 2, 1987)

As owners of lakefront property adjacent to the "Ingoldsby Beach", we would like to express our views and observations in regards to the above newspaper article, the construction and summer use of the beach.

Early in May '87 we read about the proposed construction for a public beach in the Minden Times. As we had not received any written notice about this plan, nor had we seen any draft development plans, we were concerned and upset. We were concerned about the newly placed red survey stakes that had been placed on our property and what they signified; we were concerned about the possible cutting down of trees along the lakefront and between our property and the beach; we were concerned about a parking lot being constructed so close to the water's edge and the possible seepage of oil or gasoline into the lake; we were concerned about cars backing out onto a busy roadway, where traffic frequently moves at a speed which greatly exceeds the speed limit and mostly, we were concerned that the natural shoreline and the beauty of it would be destroyed and replaced by a parking lot. As a result, we joined in signing a petition, which incidentally was signed by many residents of Ingoldsby, protesting the construction of such an area.

At no time did we voice our objections to residents using this area for public swimming. In fact, we openly supported their right to swim in that area.

As a full-time resident during the months of June, July, August and part of September, I watched the construction activities and noted the use of this beach. The trees were not cut down; the parking lot was grassed not paved and in fact, the area was quite attractive.

If the proposed plan had been shared with us at the onset, perhaps many of the residents' concerns would have been addressed.

As far as public use, we were surprised, after all the attention given to it, how little the beach was used. One family with two children came regularly every day or so around 5:30 p.m. and stayed for approximately 45 minutes. The children did not appear to be having any problem, nor did the adults, climbing over rocks in order to get into the water. They seemed to enjoy just sitting on the dock, or running off the dock into the water. Even on the hottest days, I never saw more than 2 or 3 cars parked at the beach. The majority of time, there was no one at the beach at all. I might also add, that it was very rare to see motorized boats and swimmers in the area at the same time - perhaps only 3 or 4 times during the entire summer.

So, what is all the fuss about? I take exception to the comment in The Echo that - "Residents of Ingoldsby are still awaiting improvements to a public beach area ..."

B. Thomas who with his wife (Annie Gainforth Thomas) and I started to build Deer Lodge in 1920. No trailer park was at this site at anytime. My Dad bought it from Laurence Holland - it was part of his farm.

We cut logs and took them to Sid Thomas' sawmill on the N.E. end of Kashagawigamog Lake to be sawed for a lot

Short of facts

Editor:

A friend from Haliburton gave us a copy of your paper of June 15 - 22, 1987 that had an article "Deer Lodge caters to the bigger kids".

May I enlighten you as to a few true facts about Deer Lodge which you seem to be very short of in this article.

I, Frank W. Thomas was born and raised in Haliburton, son of Frank

This is misleading and untrue, unless the word "Residents" applies to only two people.

I find it very difficult to understand how on one hand we are told not to make alternations to the natural shoreline (re: retaining walls, boat-houses, crib docks, etc.) out of a concern for the environment, conservation, soil erosion, water life, etc. and yet, now an issue is being made by a few people to remove rocks (which do serve a purpose) and to proceed with further alterations.

We feel that you should be congratulated for maintaining the natural environment and beauty of the area and certainly, a couple of people do not speak for all the residents of Ingoldsby. Why should further sums of money be used for an area which was frequented so little and as mentioned, those children who did use it, did seem to be enjoying it - there was no great hardship getting to the water.

I wonder what future demands will be next - public change houses, washrooms, steps leading into the water a life-guard - signs posted (no boating, no fishing, etc.) May I suggest that before pouring more money into this project or before making additional alterations to the shoreline, that you speak with more than a couple of Ingoldsby residents.

The Minden and Haliburton Lions Clubs raised $16,000 for the Haliburton Hospital Expansion Fund with their lakefront lot raffle. Paul Espie and Lee Oster, the ticket chairmen for the two clubs, delivered this oversized cheque to Barbara Dawson last Thursday night. Ken Wilson was the lucky winner of the lot on Kennisis Lake. He was given his ticket as a Christmas present.

of the lumber. In the mid-twenties Deer Lodge catered to over 100 guests - full capacity for the summer months. I lived with my parents and helped until it was sold in 1936 to Reg Handscomb. My sisters Elsie Cowen and Ruby Couch both worked as waitresses and can help me vouch for the crowds we had during those years.

The first lodge burned down in the spring of 1933 so had to rebuild to have it ready by July. This time with no rooms in the main lodge so had to build many more cabins along the shore and on what was an island at the time to take care of the reservations already taken the year before that year. Before the lodge burned we had electricity, flush toilets and running water throughout. First we had a grass tennis court - then a clay court - wire enclosed.

At that time Deer Lodge was considered to be one of the best equipped, modern and prosperous resorts in Haliburton County. Basically it blossomed long before my Dad sold it.

May I suggest that when you write this type of article you get your facts straight before printing such untruths. I do hope you will see fit to put this letter in your paper as many of our friends and relatives up there asked me to set these matters straight.

F. W. Thomas,
Mar, Ont.

P.S. I am his wife who worked at Deer Lodge in the summer of 1931 and can truly say "they were really blossoming". Later years I worked at Birch Point directly across from Deer Lodge, so have first hand knowledge of its prosperity.

Senior curling first half results

submitted by
W. Ralph Kennedy

The first half of our 1987 - 88 year is now behind us with a very exciting and challenging second half ahead of us.

As is always the case there were some surprises when the first half winners were determined, but as in everything we do there are those that lead the pack and those that come elsewhere. The writer is one of those that came elsewhere.

Friday Mixed

The Mixed League (Friday afternoons) comprised 22 teams with Joyce Wiltshire's team taking top honours. J. W. was ably assisted by Angela O'Neill vice skip, Norm Gilmore second and Cliff Green lead. The total points accumulated was 75 and winning 36 ends.

Very close on their heels was Gwen Cox also with 75 points but only 30 ends. Jack Harrington was vice skip on this second-place team, Doris Craig as second and Lee Oster lead.

The third team in the Mixed League was Stan Blears skip with 65 points, Ruby Kennedy vice, Rowland Sedgwick and Nancy Moore as second and lead.

Wednesday Ladies

Wednesday afternoon Senior Ladies honours was captured by Lois Adamson's team which included Angela O'Neill vice skip, Ruby Kennedy second and Nancy Cook as lead.

This fine team's result was 65 points and 31 ends. It must have been an uphill battle as the second team was very close.

The team who gave L. a good run was skipped by Peggy Pettinger, with Marion Ingram in the vice position, Isobel Lewis in second and Wanda Carter in that all important position of lead. Some one on this team must have coughed at the wrong time as their score was 65 points, 28 ends.

The third position was taken by Glenda Robertson's group comprised of Alberta Maitland, Billy Shuyler and May Sinclair in the positions of vice, second and lead. Glenda's team got 60 points.

Monday Men's

Monday afternoon Senior Men's league was headed by Bill Donnelly who was the major domo with a fantastic score of 90 points. I say again 90 points. This hard working team included Jim Grant vice skip, Alex Godin second and Pete Johnson as lead.

Second spot was taken by Tom Hurta's team which consisted of, as you would guess, Tom Hurta skip, Stan Blears vice, Fred Martin second with Ed Bulger as lead. Total points for this team was 70.

In the third position was Hal Burton skip with Gil Scott filling the vice position, Eric Lewis second and Doug Pritchard lead. Not so far behind the winners with 65 points.

Regardless of where you finished everyone would have to agree to a most enjoyable first half but I am assured that those teams and personnel who achieved the exalted positions mentioned in the foregoing will have a real challenge to repeat their performance in the months to come.

President Ed Pettinger, his executive and the board of directors wish to congratulate all teams for a well played first half. Special mention must be made to those teams that headed each group.

And remember if your mother didn't have any children it's for darn sure you won't.

Times lose, race is on Hold your horses. The race for first place in the Minden Men's Recreational Hockey League is back on.

An upset loss to the Rockcliffe last Monday night has trimmed The Times' lead to just one game, giving Halls Insurance a chance to make a stretch run for the top spot at the end of the season.

If Halls can win its final two games, it will be guaranteed at least a share of first place. And right now the team boasts the best goals for and against average in the league.

However, winning the final two games of the schedule will be no easy task for Halls. Tonight the team faces a strong challenger when it meets Hartwick Construction at 10 p.m. And in the final game, they will have to upset The Times.

Although a less likely candidate, Hartwick also has a slim chance of finishing in first. Hartwick has to win both of its games and hope that The Times goes out with two losses.

The Times' 6-2 loss to the Rockcliffe last Monday opened the flood gates to all sorts of possibilities. Going into the game it had a four point lead over second-place Halls and a win would have sealed it for them. However, it was not to be.

Rockcliffe 6, Times 2

The Rockcliffe scored first and never really looked back as they went on to upset The Times in the first game of the night.

John Fedeski scored the lone goal for the Rockcliffe in the opening stanza, and Al Cunningham added another two in the second.

The Times scored once in the second frame and Andy Campbell added another early in the third. However, the Rockcliffe's Brian Marquardt, Harold Cowen and Bernie Upton each pumped in one in the final frame to add to the win.

Hartwick 14, Vasey 4

After accepting its first loss in eight games a week earlier, Hartwick was back on the attack last Monday, doling out a 14-4 loss to Vasey Real Estate.

Hartwick's Larry Sawyer put in an exceptional performance scoring half of his team's goals. Dave Hartwick added three to the tally while Brian Shaw, Irwin Asbell and Murray Beetlestone each scored once.

Vasey's goals were notched by Jerry Campbell, Norm Barry, Daryl Ward and Cory Walker.

Halls 6, Home 1

Home Hardware was first to light up the scoreboard in the final game of the night last Monday. However, Scott Hamilton's goal was the only one his team would see as Halls rallied back to win 6-1.

It was a well-rounded effort that took Halls to victory over Home. Scoring were Dave Rogers, Ron Finlay, Tom Haley, Kim Collis, Barry Boice and Ken Casey.

Tonight, Home takes on the Rockcliffe at 7 p.m. The Times will meet Vasey at 8:30 p.m., and Hartwick and Halls will battle it out at 10 p.m.

Scott sells trade

There were many questions but few objections as Victoria - Haliburton MP Bill Scott outlines some of the details of the free trade agreement to the Haliburton County Farmers' Association last Tuesday night.

About 25 members were on hand at the Anson, Hindon and Minden Council Chambers for the 12th annual meeting of the association, where Scott was the guest speaker.

With close to 200 protectionist bills now awaiting approval by the U.S. Congress, it is urgent that a deal is struck soon, Scott told the gathering. He said the agreement also has to be struck before President Ronald Reagan is replaced in the coming elections.

Scott said Reagan favours the deal, and if it isn't passed before he is gone a deal may never be reached. "The rush is on," he said, to make the deal before Reagan is replaced and to stop the 200 protectionist bills.

Most of the comments to date have come from those opposed to a free trade agreement, said Scott. Little comment has been made by the business community until recently, he added.

Business community speaking up

He pulled out some clippings from the Lindsay Post that indicated two local businesses are expanding and moving out of the industrial mall and feel that a trade agreement with the U.S. will help them. Although the story indicated that free trade is a factor in the expansion of the companies, both had been planning their moves almost two years ago.

There are 71 trading nations in the world that have some sort of trade agreements, said Scott, indicating that Canada and the U.S. should also have an agreement. It used to be that Europe was a great market for North American companies, but the European Common Market came to be and that trade "dried up".

"Where do we go," he asked, if Canada loses the American market through protectionist measures?

"If we could live with status quo, we wouldn't be talking free trade," said Scott. "But we can't do that. We have to have someone to trade with."

Scott said a trade deal will benefit consumers as well as big business. For example, he said a first-time home-owner will save up to $8,000 on building materials, appliances and furniture if a deal is reached. He said the savings would result from reduced tariffs. Though, when questioned later, he agreed that the lost income from tariffs may have to be recovered through increased taxes.

Building to be moved

The museum committee is presently investigating the cost of moving the heritage home situated behind the I.G.A. store on to museum property at the end of April.

We had several responses (still looking for more) to our appeal for volunteer labour and support members to our committee. We are still interested in heritage photos which we can reproduce for our display this summer. Please contact Stan Hill at 286-3939, Box 789 if you can assist us.

Doreen Berry has a committee which is preparing a Heritage supplement to the Minden Times this spring. Many of our citizens have lived in the Minden area for a large part of their lives and could be very helpful in organizing heritage information. Give Doreen a call if you can help.

While filming a Heritage Interview with Lyndsie Lewis, granddaughter of Justice of the Peace, Mr. John Delamere, the story was told of a lumberman who was fined $10 for socking another man in the jaw. "You mean I have to pay $10 when I hit someone?" he said. With that he took another $10 from his pocket, gave it to Mr. Delamere, then he socked him again.

The museum committee meets Wednesday, January 20 at 10:00 a.m. in the Agnes Jamieson Gallery. Visitors are welcome.

Splake to be stocked in Pine Lake

The Ministry of Natural Resources, Minden District is considering stocking Pine Lake (Guilford Township) with splake.

Splake have not previously been stocked in Pine Lake. This stocking effort is being made in order to create new cold-water angling opportuities in Pine Lake.

This project is being planned and implemented under this Ministry's Approved Class Environmental Assessment for Fish stock in new waters.

Questions or concerns regarding this proposal should be directed to the District Manager, Minden District by February 15, 1988. The opportunity to request an individual assessment is available, if necessary.

Final notice of this project will be issued only to those who reply to this notice and those directly affected.

Attention Property Owners and Tenants in the Township of Cardiff

Your Municipality is Being Reassessed

In response to a request from your municipal council, all properties will be reassessed under the Section 63 Reassessment Program.

Under this Program, each property in a municipality is assigned to one of the following classes: residential, multi-residential, commercial, industrial, or farm. All of the properties within each class are assessed at the same proportion of their 1984 market value. This results in a fairer distribution of property taxes among the ratepayers in each class.

Mailing of Notices of Property Valuation

1987 Notices of Property Valuation will be mailed to all property owners and tenants.

The assessed value shown on your Notice will be used for the calculation of your 1988 municipal and school taxes.

A full explanation of the Section 63 Reassessment Program, the appeal procedures, and a timetable for Open Houses in your area can be found on the information insert which accompanies your new Notice of Property Valuation.

Hi there! Now that everyone is back at school, with the odd pre-exam test or assignment returned, the most gruelling part of the year is close at hand - EXAMS! For the fairly organized person, exam studying can be fairly straight forward, but for the busy, laissez-faire type, cramming is the supposedly right thing to do - the night before. Sure, we all were given study habit sheets on the first day back in grade nine, and back then we usually stuck by them. Now, once grade nine is in the past, we tell ourselves we won't cram; but, sometimes it just happens. A bad or boring subject, overconfidence, or running out of time can all lead to the cramming situation. A bit of advice - when this column comes out, the date will be January 18. If you haven't started studying, do a bit tonight. It will help you in the long run.

But on a happier note - the Drama Club is in the stages of choosing a play for our spring production. There will be more news on this later.

Our wonderful funny, enthusiastic exchange student, KIWI (Angela Roberts) gave her own special good-bye to the entire school last Tuesday during the morning announcements. Those who knew her, and those who didn't felt her sadness in having to say goodbye to all her Canadian friends. As she returns home to New Zealand, she will be missed a lot by everyone at HHSS.

After the two week holiday, of getting up at late hours and going to bed late, time and the ever needed sleep seems to once again be important. At the end of school on January fourth, we must all have looked like zombies. Once this week is over we should all be back into the groove of things.

Here's hoping everyone had a happy New Year and a Merry Christmas!

Remember the story we covered not so long ago on our disappointment with our school's "new" computer system? Well, after seven month's wait, the real ones are finally here. We received 26 - December '87 edition ICON2 systems, as well as the filesaver, on the week of the fourth. None were smashed this time, and the temporary machines were sent back. We can now begin in-depth computer studies, if we can figure out how the beasts work!

For all those who were lucky enough to have attended December's "Cabaret of Talent", you will be happy to know that plans are already being made for another presentation by the HHSS Drama Club. This time, the group will be working on a full-scale play. We'll keep you in suspense about the name of it, though. You'll have to wait for the scoop as soon as word is available.

Nowadays, highschool students are preparing themselves for the absolute worst. We must be able to defend ourselves from 'them'. When they attack, they show no mercy, obliterating those who are not ready to accept their wrath. Only 4 more days until the invasion ...

...Yes! It's exam time at HHSS, and as always, we're all set (sure we are!). They start on January 21st, and continue until the 29th. Since we returned from our holidays, teachers have been slapping last-minute work on us to learn, as well as reviewing old material until they're blue in the face - and we're bored to tears! Even though they only count for 30 - 40% of our term mark, we still have to go through the rigors of learning ax(2)&bx&C-0 or "Why did Macbeth murder Banquo?" Sometimes it's enough to make you scream, but when it's all over, we can go until June knowing that we don't have to cram for anything too big.

Well, we'd better sign off. Miss Philp gave us

THE TIMES Page 17
Grammar - homework, Mr. Wallace gave us yet another "flux tube" reading assignment, and we still have to muddle through quadratic equations! Fun, fun, fun!

Until next week...

Area roads to be rated man insisted that council give some promise or guarantee that he could take back to the rest of the residents. However, council would not promise anything.

"What did you expect us to say ... we would pave it?" asked Councillor Bob Sisson. He said there are another 15 to 20 roads in the municipality that need paving just as much.

Nesbitt said, "Your road is repaired as good as the rest and we'll continue upgrading as fast as money will allow."

5-year plan

Later in the meeting, council was informed of a new Ministry of Transportation plan that might have been helpful in dealing with the Blairhampton Road delegation.

Jim Robertson and Andy Mintz from the ministry described the new five-year roads plan being offered. This plan allows the municipality to schedule its road work priorities for five years at a time.

Under the program, a study is conducted and the roads are given a rating of one through 10. Then, with the priorities established a five-year schedule of road work is drawn up, taking into account budget limitations.

Council heard that the plan is beneficial to the municipality in justifying the need for supplementary grants to the ministry.

The ratings are established by the roads superintendent, the ministry and a consultant and updated each year.

After hearing the presentation, council passed a resolution instructing Cameron to seek tenders from consulting firms to have a study carried out. Other area municipalities, including Lutterworth and Stanhope Townships are also planning to have similar studies done.

Stanhope Council notes

The following are items discussed at the January 13 meeting of Stanhope Township Council:

— Housing —

Council gave its support to a proposal by the Haliburton Social Action Committee to investigate the need for affordable housing in the county.

A request for support is being circulated to all the municipalities in Haliburton County. Anson, Hindon and Minden also lent its support at its meeting last Thursday.

— History —

Nila Reynolds approached council to give an update on her plans to write a history of Stanhope Township.

Council noted that a similar project is being conducted by Barb Nangle. It was suggested that the two might get together on the project. If their format is similar the efforts could be combined in one book. If there are different formats, it could also be done in one book with two parts.

— Elections —

Clerk Gerald Bain highlighted a few of the changes to the municipal act now being proposed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs John Eakins.

If the changes are approved, the enumeration procedure will be carried out through a direct mail program. Eligible voters will receive a questionnaire in the mail. Only if the questionnaire is not completed will an enumerator call on residents.

Another change that would benefit seasonal residents would be the completion of a voters list by the end of July. Residents would have all of August to check the list and revisions could be made in September.

The proposed changes could be in effect in time for this year's municipal elections.

— No Borrowing —

Local ratepayers will be pleased to learn that Stanhope Township made it through all of last year without having to borrow any money.

Clerk Gerald Bain said this is the first time in at least 18 years that the municipality has not had to borrow. He said the successful year is the result of a good cash flow and the collection of some tax arrears. Although there were some large purchases made in the year, such as a new grader, a truck and a mini pumper for the fire department, these were covered by reserve funds.

Bain also noted that the township earned $14,000 in interest revenue for the year.

The Sled Dog Races had huge crowds both Saturday and Sunday, with some "fun" races with people and sleds after the formal introductions. The events went on as planned and the committees and workers were kept busy. It is unfortunate that traffic over the bridge causes some trouble, but with the snow the dogs can really "fly". Many people were staying at their cottage and families were getting together. This event makes a break in the winter and was well advertised on radio, T.V. and in newspapers. Congrats to team winners and also to all the workers for an entertaining two days. See you next year.

Jean Lacey was away visiting with Wm. and Wendy Lacey and family, Dawn, April and Jeremy at Shelburne, at Mono Mills with Cliff and Cheryl Lacey and sons Derek and Darren. While there she saw the flame and held it. Then on to visit with daughter Jeanne and Mike Cruickshank and Mish, Jim and Cheri and then visited daughter Jo and Jim Oatman and Crystal and Joshua all of Shelburne and also had visits with Cliff and Darlene Bricker and girls from Conn.

Recent birthdays are those of Hazel Hoskin, January 15 at Hyland Crest and Penny Wilson at T.D. Bank. All good wishes to both.

Sir Isaac Newton kept a dog and a cat. He got tired letting them out when he was working, so he cut a panel in the door big enough to let out the dog. Then he decided a smaller panel would do for the cat. So he cut another panel - in the same door! Even the cleverest of us can nod at times!

Maud Coulter was away for several weeks and visited with Adele and Ray Rivers and family of Downsview and the Milligans at Newtonville.

Visiting with Bess, Fred and Lesley Cox last weekend was Laurel McKay of Willowdale. All enjoyed the sled dog races on the weekend.

The Tuesday night Euchre games at Gelert Hall had as winners - lone hands - Earl Schellenberg, Isabel Saunders, May Hicks, Paul Hilyer and Everett Burk with next games there January 26th.

Visiting the Beers family last weekend were Marg Smith of Oshawa and Rose and Tim Haxton of Huntsville, also enjoying the sled dog derby.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Harry Nutbean, Walter Williamson, Art Lee, Jane Erikson and Roy Boutilier whose funerals were since last week.

Don McMillan and friend Bill from Glenarm visited me on Sunday and we had a chat about our family history, as usual.

Says William: The doctor maybe can't make you young again - but he can help you to keep on growing old!

Club 35 card party winners for the week include: door prize - Ruby Cartwright, most lone hands - Harry Randall, high lady - Velda Harrison, high man - George Alsop and others - Shirley Bunker, Harry Randall and Neil Cartwright.

I was truly amazed at the Derby on Sunday when I noticed people with their pet dogs there to distract the racers. Also so many people were crossing the Main Street when asked not to do so or they were angry about the request.

A young Dumfries couple took their new baby on its first outing to see his two great-grandmies.

The first is 76. She looked at the bundle wrapped up in a white shawl, held him for a while and smiled sadly.

"At least I've lived long enough to see my great-grandchild," she said. "But I doubt if I'll live to see much more of him."

The other great-grannie, who lives a few streets away, is 80. She's bright as a button, and makes pounds of jam every year, knits for every new baby in the district, and couldn't wait to have a peep at the new arrival. "Just think," she said with a laugh. "I'll be 101 on his 21st birthday!"

Yes, so much depends on how you look at life.

Coming events are 'Members of Minden Museum Committee' are meeting at 10 a.m. January 20 at Agnes Jamieson Gallery. Also that afternoon, January 20th, is Women's Institute and time is 2. This is in the Common Room. Now only two weeks until Winter Carnival of January 29, 30 and 31st. Next Rotary Bingo is January 26.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!

Q: What would you get if you blew your hair dryer down a rabbit hole?

A: Hot cross bunnies.

Q: What is a mouse's favourite game?

A: Hide and squeek.

Q: Who are the best letter writers?

A: Fishermen, they'll always drop you a line.

Q: What are the best letters to read in hot weather?

A: Fan mail.

Q: What did the little hand say to the big hand?

A: Meet me at noon for lunch.

Hello folks. The new year has entered with lots of snow, but it will all go away one of these days.

Service Sunday evening in the chapel was by Rev. J. Burgess with Mrs. Rose playing the organ, and on Tuesday morning we had Rev. Fast of Minden Gospel Church. Our afternoon tea on Thursday was served by the Ladies Auxiliary of Haliburton Legion No. 129. It sure was nice, thanks again.

Our bad news this week is Mr. Samuelson is leaving us. We regret this very much but we wish him the best of luck in his new adventure.

Terry Barnum came and took his mother Winnie Barnum to the hockey game on Saturday afternoon. Bert Harrison had several of his family in during the week. We are glad to have Edna Cowan home again after her extended visit with her family and friends. Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Schultz on the death of her brother Walter. My grandson Derek Hewitt from Burlington called to see me Saturday morning. He was attending the dog races along with visiting with his parents Jean and George Hewitt.

We had Mr. Payne and Mr. Deacon Friday evening to entertain us. The guitar of Mr. Deacon's sounds real good. We really enjoyed their music and singing.

Our movies Monday night were "The Rail Roader", "Pioneer Life" and "The Winter Camp".

January birthdays are Alice Todd, Hazel Hoskin, Hugh McEachern and Royce Harrison.

Happy birthday and Happy New Year to all.

Till next week friends.

The truths learned at a parent's knee make us the folk we grow to be.
